GBC ThermaBind PVC File Strip (50):

Binding doesn't get any simpler! Finished documents frequently need storing, archiving or organising for later reference or updating. The ThermaBind FileStrip is a simple way to enable bound documents to be incorporated into almost any conventional organisational or archiving solution - such as a ring binder or presentation folder. They are bound into the document during the Binding process and being of clear plastic remain discreet yet strong. FileStrips are available for CombBind, WireBind, ClickBind, StripBind and ThermaBind.

- Thermal FileStrip - Enables a thermal bound document to be filed away in a ring binder for easy storage.
