Friesian Foal

schleich HORSE CLUB Friesian Foal:

The little Friesian Foal has a coat just as jet black as his parents. Only the hair is not yet so long and magnificent. But that will surely come when it grows into a stately, large thoroughbred horse. Its long legs already show that it will be a real eye-catcher one day. It trots gracefully across the pasture and keeps a lookout for playmates. Will it find any there?

The cute Friesian Foal curiously pricks up its ears and stretches its long neck. What's it discovered that is so interesting? No doubt it will trot across the pasture on its long legs to take a closer look. The pitch-black Friesian Foal is sure to look just like its father, the handsome Friesian Stallion (sold separately) when it grows up. A great future awaits with a career in horse shows or as a dressage horse. This old horse breed is particularly well suited for that kind of work. Friesians are also known to be reliable and gentle – perfect friends.
